To be happy and content...

by Christian Frehner, Switzerland

Since 1975, the year when 'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier made his mission as a preacher of the so-called spiritual teachings public and at the same time triggered the worldwide UFO controversy, he has written and published about 70 books, along with countless articles and hundreds of lessons for the spiritual teachings study course. Unnoticed by the majority of humanity on earth, a complete work has gradually been published that surpasses all phi-losophical, ideological and religious books of all languages in terms of profundity, agreement with reality, logic and positive effects, etc. This assessment may seem exaggerated, if not even arrogant, but it should be shared by all those people who have already familiarized themselves with this wealth of knowledge and who have been able to perceive and - hopefully - feel the vibrations of truth and wisdom in their innermost being. From the 'Chalice of Truth' to the 'OM', the 'Arahat Athersata' and 'The Psyche' up to the 16 'Pleiadian-Plejarian Contact Reports' blocks that have been published so far, the people of the earth now have such an extensive body of knowledge at their disposal, which, in order to analyse it thoroughly and in all facets and strands, to examine it and above all to transform it into wisdom as secured knowledge, requires enormous time and will always remain up-to-date for all future generations.

With reference to what I have just said, I feel the need to point out a particularly brightly shining gem in the long chain of sparkling letter jewels that has recently come to public attention. In December 2019, Billy's latest work was published, a 245-page book entitled 'When man wants to be happy and content ...'. At the time, I had already noticed this when reading '... Kampf den Depressionen', which I tried to convey to my readers in the epilogue of the book, this experience has been considerably intensified in the current book. While reading this latest work of Billy's I perceived a tremendous power and energy, a kind of positive pull, a stream of energy that builds up and intensifies from page to page. Everything is so clear, understandable and logically explained that when I read it, the realization comes out again and again and practically 'automatically': 'That's how it is; this is the reality, the truth! A further effect that inevitably occurs - at least it did for me - are thoughts about, and a deep compassion for, those countless people, many of whom have been chewing on unprocessed assaults, problems and complexes etc. since their early youth, and who are driven along by their manifold hardships and disorientation on the storms and imponderables of life. This is also true for countless people who break down due to drastic events in their later life, because they have never learned

- usually in the absence of instruction - to keep their world of thought in order and to apply the laws of effective mental health care. The desire for happiness and contentment is certainly there, but because the solution is sought in the wrong place or the wrong steps are taken, everything remains unsatisfactory, unstable and not permanent, which often leads to a shortened earthly existence.

What next? - For people who are neither happy nor satisfied, but who want to change this fundamentally, FIGU's 'Wassermannzeit-Verlag' now offers a highly effective 'medicine' which does not cause any negative side effects, whose 'package insert' this report corresponds to, and for whose intake or application neither the advice of a doctor nor a pharmacist is required, but only the clear decision of the unhappy and dissatisfied person concerned to take their own life and its quality into their own hands and to determine it independently.

Reader's question:

Recently I have been reading the word Intelligentum in your more recent writings. In my researches on the internet or in my old foreign word dictionary I am only referred to intelligence or intelligent. In the internet I found another page of a company, Intelligentum (http://www.translatetheweb.com/?ref=SERPr=rokt=de.DEI=dep=EN\_DE=http%3a%2f%2fintelligentum.com%2f (as of 2.10.2019)), which according to their own statements "offers intelligent solutions for difficult business, scientific and technological problems". (Note/question Billy: = what is all this confusing???)

Is intelligence the same as intelligentum? Or is Intelligentum a form of more advanced intelligence?

Kai Amos, Germany

Answer: Unfortunately it has been the case since time immemorial that some <wise> and <clever> contemporaries assess themselves incredibly cleverly and derive new terms, designations and words from any particular terms which they do not understand correctly and introduce them into languages which are then completely wrong and mean something completely different from what must be understood by them in principle. In this way the whole thing is then handed down and used for centuries without anyone being disturbed by it or finding out that the term is wrong. But if one day, however, someone who understands certain words, terms and designations correctly and is therefore able to interpret and explain them correctly, appears to be able to explain what they actually mean effectively, then all the know-it-alls in linguistics will make the enlightening ridiculous. And this has always happened in this way because the <students and scholars with their doctoral and professorial degrees as <experts know everything better - want or have to know everything better. As a result, it is almost impossible to correct and replace really completely wrong terms by effectively relevant correct words, designations and terms.

But what now has to be explained in relation to the concepts intelligence and intelligentum, that refers to the fact that I have gained through the Pleiarian linguists and their teaching certain knowledge of the German language and the real value and effective meaning of very specific words or concepts. Contrary to all earthly linguistic assertions regarding the origin of certain terms and word meanings from the German, Latin and Greek languages, which are assigned to certain original words or original terms, it is clear from the teachings of the Pleiar linguists that new words and terms have been taken from certain words and terms - especially from the ancient Latin and Greek languages -, have been modified and given incorrect false meanings. This is also the case with the term <intelligence>, which was wrongly coined from the Latin language from the term <intellectual> and provided with a completely wrong meaning. This, whereas the term <intellectual> in its basic value means <select> and <select> as well as <select between>, as well as <select by recognizing>, <select by understanding>, and <select and select>, <select by looking>, etc. and has nothing to do with <intelligence> resp. with <intelligence>. According to the Plejaric linguists, who have been dealing with the earthly languages for about 12 millennia, the <selecting> or <selecting> refers to <silos>, <storage> or storage, respectively, in which knowledge is deposited that can be <selected>, <selected>, <searched for>, <viewed and selected> again, if the need for it arises. This expresses the fact that the term <intellectual> is to be understood as <storage> from which certain knowledge factors can be recalled when required or can be <selected> or <selected> again.

The Latin term <intelligentum>, which effectively had a rarity value in the Old Latin language and which is hardly or not at all known in modern times even in Latin language teaching, was also early on translated completely wrongly as <intelligence> and thus ultimately also assigned to the term <intellectual>. The word resp. the term <intelligentum>, however, has neither an association with <intellectual> resp. with <select>, <exclude>, <search and select> etc. and with that with the store of knowledge, but rather, the term <intelligence> describes clearly, distinctly and unmistakably the <intelligence> and with that, the state of the intellect, which must be fundamentally worked out through the activity of the use of understanding and reason and can only be built up in this way. Subsequently, the intellectual state of value and the educational value of the intellect results from this, through which, in turn, the value level of the <intelligentum> resp. of being intelligent is expressed.

The whole of this explanation clearly states that in relation to <intelligence>, this term only corresponds to a store of knowledge, but has nothing to do with <intelligence> in any way, which is why no so-called IQ test can be carried out. Consequently, IQ tests are complete nonsense, as the scientific explanations of the Plejars show. And that such IQ tests are not possible, but rather nonsensical, is due to the fact that in a knowledge spew-

It is not possible to determine or measure any intelligence or intelligence and thus also not the value of the intellect, etc. With a memory of any kind, be it a book, a library, a warehouse or an electronic computer memory containing files and folders, no intelligence or intelligence can be called up and evaluated in any way, but only the existing stored content, which is only stored as production and is only selected and retrieved for use when needed.

Excerpt from the official 724th interview excerpt of 11 October 2019

Billy ... .. I also want to refer today to this letter from a man who searches our FIGU publications on the Internet and therefore asks various questions, as you can see here. He has somehow or somewhere read, heard or somehow or other experienced various things, for which I am to give answers in a bulletin, but not openly mention his name, which I will of course take into account in an answer, but for which I must explain that I do not want to answer all of the questions and that I am not allowed to explain some of them. What he asks about private matters, namely why my ex-wife is slandering me, I don't really want to talk about that, because for me the matter is closed, so I let others talk about it, who already clarified everything about two decades ago. On the one hand there was Michael Hesemann and on the other hand Guido Moosbrugger. Guido wrote something in 2007, but I didn't publish it because I just wanted to let everything rest, but I think I'll do that now anyway, after which I'll never go back to questions like these again, even if I continue to be treated like this, whether by letter, telephone, fax or internet.

Basically, with regard to his questions, I really must not give information to everyone about what could be explained. And the reason I have to keep silent is because I promised your father Sfath already in the 1940s that I would keep silent about very specific things under all circumstances and therefore never ever talk about them in such a way and let things be said which on the one hand must not be allowed to become public, but on the other hand could cause a political catastrophe and another world war. And for that I do not want and cannot hold myself responsible. Sfath only allowed me that I might secretly entrust certain information to a very special friend, whom he called by name and function, because he would carry out a task of enlightenment regarding my contacts with you Plejars. This information, together with exact predictions, which he then may also openly name after their arrival, are to serve him on the one hand as proof of my honesty and as proof of my contacts with you Plejars, whereby he however may never betray the secret information and may never talk about it with anyone. And this then actually happened in such a way, which I have never doubted from the very beginning. So until today I have kept silent about all this certain and very serious information entrusted to me by your father, and I will continue to do so in the future and during the last time of my life. Furthermore, Sfath also explained that my silence did not only apply to all that he had entrusted to me and which we both saw together through real futures, because my promise of silence also applies to special information of an earthly-military, secret service and political nature, which would be given to me Asket and later to all of you, that is to say your daughter Semjase, as well as you and Quetzal and others. In any case, I would only be allowed to speak openly and trumpet out into the world information that the people were already talking about speculatively anyway and would remain so for the time being, although I would have to decide for myself how much I would say about it. So perhaps I can answer two or three questions in part, but nothing more.

Ptaah Perhaps I can give some answers to some of the questions, if that is permissible. But please read out what questions the man has put to you.

Billy That you can give answers is probably not possible, because the questions asked here in this letter you are not allowed to answer either, as you will hear soon. Lord ... .., you can read his address here; and how and what he writes now, I will read it to you as it is written, if you want to hear it?

Questions to you personally Billy Meier

Allow me to ask you a few questions about what I am seriously concerned about and what is behind it all. I have heard various stories from people, watched some programmes on television and received all kinds of contradictory explanations from acquaintances and friends, but I am not satisfied with all this, so I am writing to you and hope that you will be able to give me an answer to everything. That is why I will also telephone you but I would like you to answer my questions in one of your bulletins, which you publish on the Internet and which I always read with great interest. My questions are now the following, which I would like you to answer and explain to me what is behind them and what I think about them.

1. What do I have to understand and what is behind the object called TR-3B?
2. What is behind the secret project, called Solar Warden or something similar, which is said to have had the fingers in the pie of the American President Donald Reagan?
3. What has emerged from Reagan's secret project to date and does it still exist?
4. Do the Americans have a space weapons program and space weapons, and how do they do it if they do?
5. What really happened to your friend Wendelle Stevens that got him sent to prison? ...
6. Why are you being slandered by your divorced wife, and why does she lie about making UFO models with barrel lids and photographing them, and then claim that they are real spaceships, when two experts, Rhal Zahi and Christopher Lock Hon, checked everything and found that everything is true and you are not a fraud. They also wrote the book about this <Research of a real UFO>, which I bought from the FIGU association. And just as your divorced wife slandered you, so it is done by your younger son in another way, but I learned that he was brought up against you by her. And that must be true, because I was in Schmidrüti and in her center several times, inquired about you in the village and with your club members, because lie does not go public and does not receive visitors. However, I have received completely different statements and assessments about you in the village and in the center as well as in other places than your son and your divorcee lie on the Internet. To be honest, I would not only be happy after all this, as you were described to me as a person, personality and according to your behaviour, but I would feel very honoured if I could make your personal acquaintance.
7. What is true about all those many who call themselves alien contacts and tell stories that are more than just ridiculous and obviously just fantasies, but which Michael Hesemann in one of his books lifts up into the sky and claims to be true. So it really does wonder whether this man still has all his senses together, because obviously this is not the case, because if he had even a small piece of knowledge of human nature and was not religious and naive, then he would not cheer up liars and deceivers as UFO-contactors, who are only addicted to egotism and want to play up their sick ego and satisfy their craving for recognition with their ridiculous claims as alleged contactors with extraterrestrials. Also all the ridiculous claims of this He-semann are stupid and simple-minded, that these alleged contactors brought potatoes, soil samples, crystals and gems etc. from other worlds, which of course are chemically and biologically etc. the same as the same things on earth, because on all worlds these are the same as on our world. That he also puts you, Billy Meier, in the same fraudulent bunch of contact persons, I find it quite impudent and stupid, because since he has also written good articles about you and knows that the things you brought and which were also scientifically examined and analyzed very carefully, could not originate from our earth, I find it outrageous and slanderous that Heseman puts you in connection with fraudsters regarding alleged contact persons with extraterrestrials. This especially also because you - in contrast to the fraudsters - which logically was not the case with the fraudsters, because no such contacts took place. You, Billy Meier, have many witnesses who were able to observe and witness many things in their contacts, which logically was not the case with the fraudsters, because no such contacts ever took place. Also, these swindlers had and still have no evidence whatsoever with clear photos, films or with any material that they could provide or could provide today. All these swindlers, liars and cheats could and can deliver until today were ridiculous and stupid fantasy stories, things gathered on earth, made fantasy drawings of alleged extraterrestrials as well as diffuse photos of made models, which are not identifiable. This was already the case with Adamski, who with his self-built models, fake photos and with his stories of lies about alleged contacts with people from Venus etc., affected innumerable believers, although it was actually already clear at that time that Venus is a planet hostile to life and cannot have any higher life. But nevertheless there are still many stupid Adamskis believers today who believe and advocate his lies and deceptions, just as stupid believers do, who do not think for themselves and are therefore also incapable of distinguishing between truth-telling and truth-telling.

It is important to be able to distinguish between lies and honesty, as is also the case with the faithful, who, as listeners, adore a dear God in heaven.

8. What about the three films FLIR1, GIMBAL and GoFast?
9. Do the Americans have a secret government, also called shadow government?
10. There was a man in America named James Forrester who knew something about UFOs, but then he killed himself, but I don't know why, so I want to know why.
11. What is true about the Roswell UFO case?
12. Why do so many stupid people still believe in the lie stories of Adamski and other cheats and swindlers?
13. What is the Pentagon's secret program?
14. Why, Billy Meier, are you keeping your distance from the public?
15. What's the Blue Book really about?
16. What about those people who are said to have been abducted by aliens, and what about the Giza intelligences, Astar Sheran, Men in Black, and underwater UFO stations, and what about countless UFO sightings and UFO interferences in the last World War by Foo Fighters, as well as in the Korean War and Vietnam War etc. ?

You see, Ptaah, these are the sixteen questions that Lord ... .. has written here in this letter, but I am only allowed to answer some of them, which refer to things that do not have to be kept secret.

Ptaah Various questions really must not be answered, as I know from my father's annals, because they fall under your duty of secrecy, as he ordered. But I can answer other questions as well, if you want. As for the question concerning the slander against you, it must be and is certainly unavoidable that you explain something about it even after such a long time, and I think it would be good if you let other people say something about it.

Ptaah This interests me, so I will read it then. But first I want to say that I am very surprised how much more you know about the strangers on earth and elsewhere than I and all of us Plejars have known so far. This is evident from further annals of my father, which we have found in the meantime in his legacy, which has been closed to us until now, the closure of which opened independently after your last appearance with us, which we cannot explain. But by opening the seal we now got to new and extremely amazing information and now we know that after my father's departure we neglected various things, which would have been important to do, because we did not know which task he really had to fulfil, how extensive this and his entire knowledge was with regard to various things, which he also taught you. And the main neglect, which affects us Pleiars as a whole as a planet-wide population, included our lack of efforts in relation to more intensive learning, following and keeping the <teaching of truth, teaching of the energy of creation, teaching of life. It was only through your efforts, by reminding us of the teaching in an understandable way, that we were awakened again and actively encouraged to learn and follow all the necessary values, which were slowly and over the course of time followed more and more carelessly, without energy, indifferently and unresponsive. Through your efforts, however, through your tireless work of rewriting the Teaching that we spread and taught in all our peoples, everything changed very quickly, so that in only about 45 years a state was reached which again corresponds to that when the Teaching was in full bloom.

Apart from all the positive things that have resulted from the efforts of your doctrinal reconstitution among all our peoples, our knowledge will now also be expanded in many ways through the opening of my father's secret legacy, because all the knowledge that we have gained through my father's secret annals in the last few weeks already gives us extremely important insights, for example, regarding the existence of the many strangers who have been working on earth since time immemorial, about which you also have much better knowledge than we do. This is precisely because my father Sfath also taught you about this, which you not only had to keep silent about to us, but in this way the earth people were also involved and must remain so. However, according to his notes you are instructed by him to initiate us into this knowledge, when the time is ripe, but this is to be determined by you.

Billy Yes, I know, and this time refers to the fact that I am supposed to explain to you, and thus to you, all that Sfath, as a confidant of mine, has instructed me to tell you in order to maintain your peaceableness, and the time is supposed to be when you find your way back to following the teaching. And that has actually happened.

Ptaah Then may I perhaps also ask now, as it is laid down in my father's annals, that you will enlighten us to what extent for us Pleiars our security with regard to our peace and our personal peaceableness and all related behaviour would be endangered if we were to make ourselves recognisable to the strangers who have always been on earth and who are not necessarily of a peaceful and humane nature?

Billy has no objection to this, and besides, it is my duty, as Sfath has told me, to do this at the right time, which has now come. I must, however, make a few explanatory remarks and also include Mr. 16th question ... .. concerning the Giza intelligences and Ashtar Sheran, because they have behaved in the same way as you have towards the strangers here on earth, namely in such a way that they have kept away from the strangers and have done everything possible to ensure that they have never been able to grasp even one iota of their presence. Ashtar Sheran, if I speak of him first, was a criminal, even a criminal, I would even like to say, who then lost his life in the DAL universe and whose real name was Ashtar Sheran, but I don't know what that means. Ashtashran, like the Giza intelligences, belonged to the old split-off Old-Plejari splinter group, which had already settled in our DERN universe more than 22 million years ago and were up to no good in this universe. In particular, the Giza-Intelligences were in some respects malicious elements in this respect, while Ashtashran was also evil in other ways and, in addition, spread an impulse-driven mad delusion of faith about his person among the Earthlings.

Now, just as you of today's Pleiars exercise caution and secrecy towards the strangers on earth, so these two groups were also careful not to make themselves noticeable towards the strangers, which they succeeded in doing extensively and without any problems throughout all times, following that the strangers still do not know about their former existence, nor about yours. And the clou of the two groups, the Ashtashran alias Ashtar Sheran and the Giza intelligences, was that they only stayed in our presence when they caused mischief, while they were located in another space-time plane and only came into our presence temporarily and unnoticed by the strangers. So that is one thing, while on the other hand your plejaric existence still needs to be addressed, for which some things need to be explained. First of all, as far as I know, the strangers on earth have never been able to establish the existence of the Giza-intelligences themselves, but have at most heard of them and consequently even assumed, because they themselves could not perceive them - because the Giza-people, according to their old Plejaric technique, were able to shield themselves from any localization etc., as you Plejars also do today - that the speeches would only correspond to suppositions or a fib. And as for Ashtashran alias Ashtar Sheran, to my knowledge he was never in our presence anyway, but worked from another space-time level on his confused believers on earth.

Now as for you, the Pleiars, with regard to a possible danger to you, your peace and tranquillity, etc., I can only say what your father Sfath has explained to me and suggested to you to pass on. His explanations were that several million years ago, the Pleiar ancestors were already much more advanced in terms of technology and development, and that they pushed these techniques even further than those of the various strangers on earth. So this means that you Pleiars are far and away superior to some of the strangers in terms of your technical achievements, as we earthlings say. This means that the strangers, even though they possess a highly developed technology that seems extremely futuristic to earthlings, are still very far behind your Pleiar technology and cannot cause you any harm if you continue to behave as before, hold back from them, do not let them recognize you and do not let them locate you. This in the same way as the Gizherians did, whose existence the strangers never became aware of.

Further it must now be explained that you Pleiars in your ANKAR universe in the SIRAS dimension will remain absolutely safe from the strangers on Earth, if you continue to adhere to your directives, which prescribe that you do not make any contact with foreign peoples and inhabitants of other planets etc. In this way, as you know very well, dear friend, as all Plejars know, you will also protect yourselves from falling back into the old barbaric behaviours, as they still existed with you more than 52,000 years ago and were marked by discord and war. And it should also be mentioned that if the strangers who function on earth should be able to penetrate into other universes of our creation, they would first have to find out which of the 6 other universes outside of ours it is in which your Pleiar exists. And if they did find that out, the even bigger problem would be the one in which SIRAS-

In the third dimension, it is necessary to find that dimension or space-time structure that is shifted a fraction of a second to our DERN-dimension-space-time structure. But this corresponds to a myriad of possibilities, as well as the myriad of possibilities to find the dimension gate, which you use every time anew to beam back and forth between Erra and the Earth.

That, Ptaah, dear friend, is probably enough initial information for now, which Sfath has instructed me to give you at the right time. And I think that these informations given by him should be the only ones that should be mentioned openly in conversation reports. So I estimate in any case what your father has ordered me to pass on to you, because everything else is only meant for you Plejars, but not for others, therefore also not for the people of the earth.

Ptaah Thank you, Eduard, dear friend. What you have explained is enough for today, and I now have to think about it thoroughly before I can deal with it further. Then I will now read what you have written as answers to the questions of ...

Billy Good, sit down here on my chair, then you have the screen right in front of you and you can read better. ...

Readers' questions and answers:

Unfortunately, sir, I am not allowed to answer all your questions, but I will comment on all those which I am allowed to address and explain. I am bound by professional secrecy in respect of questions one, two, three, four, eight, nine, twelve and fourteen.

5. what really happened with your friend Wendelle Stevens, etc. ...

Answer: Lt. Colonel Wendelle Stevens (USAF, ret.) was not only a very good, honorable, honest and worthy friend to me, but also a venerable and extremely trustworthy person on whose word and promise I could rely 100 percent. But exactly this was his downfall, namely because he was really trustworthy and kept his word of a given promise, namely with regard to information which I was allowed to give him in the confidence of absolute silence and secrecy, as I had already been instructed to do in the 1940s by the Pleiar Sfath. At that time I did not know Wendelle Stevens yet, but only learned for the first time that he would get in contact with me one day in the future, which actually happened. What led to Wendelle Stevens being maliciously discredited was the fact that my information made him a keeper of secrets, who steadfastly refused to divulge this information at certain points that would force him to talk. His steadfastness of silence, however, brought him harm and disaster, but this did not stop him from keeping his promise of silence. So he accepted that - as a result of keeping his promise and his silence - he would suffer injustice through filthy lies and maliciously controlled slander of those authorities who wanted to force him to speak and betray his given promise. There is probably nothing more to be said.

6. why are you slandered by your divorced wife, etc. ...

Answer: I will not comment on this, because for me these things of the past are closed and forgotten, so I will allow myself to let two other people have their say on this, who had a very good insight into everything and who have written and partly also published some things themselves, in order to clarify what was effectively a fact. What I must mention, however, is that stupid and irrational people, usually journalists, who considered themselves enemies and other antagonists of me, and who thought they were great and superior to me - as many still do today - insulted me with dirty articles of lies and slander, which among other things led to malicious attacks being made on me, even in the presence of FIGU members. The American Kal K. Korff, for example, was responsible for various articles of lies and slander, as well as the chief editor and publisher of the magazine Mysteries, but also the writer of the JUFOf = 'Journal for UFO Research'. While KKK from the USA invented lies and slander itself and spread them worldwide, the editor-in-chief and publisher L.B. of the magazine <Mysteries>, as well as the scribbler <hwp> of the JUFOf ran a scribble journalism of unparalleled quality, which was based on malicious lies and slander.

There is nothing more to say from my side, which is why I only want to list a few statements by Michael Hesemann, which he wrote to Professor Jim Dear-dorff as editor-in-chief of 'Magazin 2000plus' and which probably say much more than I would have to justify myself:

Editor-in-Chief of 'Magazin 2000plus', Germany

By: Michael Heseemann, Germany

To: Jim Deardorff

Here is my answer to the statements of KKK (= Kal K. Korff)

A case of the format of the Billy Meier case can only be explored through an interdisciplinary approach in which each expert has his own role. It does not help the case if, for example, 10 researchers go to Switzerland several times to interview the same witnesses 10 times, and they repeat themselves ad nauseam. It helps the case if each team member is active in his or her field of expertise and if the team members exchange the results of their disciplines. Therefore, when Lieutenant Colonel W. C. Stevens, Brit and Lee Elders and Tom Welch went to Switzerland in 1978-80, it was more than enough to conduct a field investigation, which was repeated in 1998 by Jaime Maussan - a professional TV journalist from TELEVISIA, the largest private TV station in Mexico - and me - a cultural anthropologist and hi-storist - and which confirmed the results of the first investigation.

In the course of our investigation, which included four visits to Switzerland from my side and two from Jaime's side, we were able to interview 24 eyewitnesses - 21 of them FIGU members, two normal inhabitants of the village of Schmidrüti, and a UN diplomat -, film Billy's collection of pictures and films and metal samples, and measure four of his contact and picture-taking sites. In evaluating his 8mm films, we were able to locate a first-generation copy from 1976 and first-generation prints of his pictures, far better material than any of the critics ever dealt with.

In the years before, I visited Billy's home half a dozen times and had two very intense conversations with Kalliope Meier, Billy's ex-wife; one in 1988, the other in 1990, at which time she testified as a witness to Billy's contacts and confirmed in an affidavit (1991) that she herself was a witness to Billy's contacts and that she never found any evidence to suggest that Billy was manipulating or falsifying any evidence.

So let me ask the question: Was she lying then, or is she lying now? Or are we merely confronted with a 'War of the Roses'? Is Kiviat's 'journalism' as serious as that of someone trying to find out the truth about Woody Allen by simply interviewing Mia Farrow?

It is a documented and testified fact that Kiviat contacted Billy in March 1998 and promised him a fair presentation of his case. In fact, he told Billy that he believed in his case and for years tried to present it to the American public in an open, positive way. He told me the same thing. That's why Billy gave him permission to use his film. Bob Kiviat lied to us and abused our trust in the worst way. His FOX-SWINDLE is far from a fair journalistic treatment of the case, but nothing more than a public conviction without the slightest possibility of defense. On the other hand, he merely proved how unscrupulous and manipulative Hollywood producers can be when they smell fast money.

1. poppys (= calliope) garbage can lids - garbage is pure nonsense. Yes, there is a distant resemblance between these garbage can lids and a part of the cake-ship. But what does this tell us about a case that was closed in its 'photo phase' as early as 1976, after half a dozen UFO types were photographed in authentic surroundings, objects of which we have comparative snapshots of identical aircraft from different countries? I admit that the 'Cake Ships' were taken at a rather difficult stage, after Semjase's contacts had ended and just before Billy, after the stress of various attacks, suffered a breakdown from which he is still recovering. Therefore, there is a possibility that these pictures, like others, were taken for the purpose of contaminating the case. On the other hand, we have carefully examined the pictures and the film of the aircraft. The trash can lids are made of plastic, the ship of highly reflective metal. The ship was filmed as it floated in front of a tall tree - we compared it with various miniature trees and the large Swiss weather pine trees and found that its structure resembled a large weather pine tree - with the colours of the tree being reflected by its mirror-like surface. When Billy zooms in and out of the scene in the original film, the meadow on which he is standing can clearly be seen, even the distance of well over a hundred metres between him, the tree and the aircraft, and it is clear that the object is far away and not in the foreground or even just in front of the camera lens.

2 Anyone who has ever met Billy Meier in person can confirm that his personality is neither that of a cult leader, nor that his position in the FIGU is that of an authoritarian leader. KKK never met Billy, which is why he cannot say anything about him. The structure of the FIGU is purely democratic; every single agenda item is voted on. A sect has a totalitarian ideology: FAITH, and you will find salvation. Billy teaches: Do not believe, find out the truth yourself. In his philosophy, man can evolve only through self-knowledge. He doesn't appear in public; he doesn't want to become a public person because he doesn't want people who follow him or who consider him special. Instead, he wants people to learn and find the truth for themselves, because that is the only way they can grow and evolve. So what is claimed to be the opposite is the equivalent of lies and slander, no matter who puts them forward.

Further published comments by Michael Hesemann

So I went back there again at the end of 1988, then received, as I said, the counter-opinions from Jim D. & Co. in 1990, and finally decided to publish Guido's book so that he could present the case from his point of view. The newly received material (from which Gary Kinder also made a book, 'Light Years') I 'processed' in 'Secret UFO'. Due to the many attacks and criticisms I decided to 'reopen the Meier case' in the mid-1990s, i.e. to start a new, thorough and unprejudiced investigation. Together with Jaime Maussan, I interviewed about 40 eyewitnesses, including Billy himself of course, followed up the witness reports from India, obtained expert opinions - and documented everything on video. My report was published in 'MAGAZIN 2000', you have it in front of you. I haven't changed my mind since then. Billy HAS real contacts, there are dozens of eye-witnesses, he has taken some of the best UFO photos and films in the world, even though his material was manipulated and contaminated from the outside, as I wrote in 'Secret UFO Classification'. Billy himself doesn't make a secret of that.

What I wrote and believed sometime in the early 1980s, as a teenager, is no longer relevant to me today. At that time I was not even professionally qualified to try a case, because I was just a student. My mistake at that time (and many people in UFO research made the same mistake) was to believe the Korff Report. Today we all know that Korff is a fibber - if you want to convince yourself of this, you can have a good laugh at www.kalkorff.com 'http://www.kal-korff.com'. Meanwhile he calls himself a colonel of a 'private Israeli Special Secret Service' and now claims to be a Jew - after he had claimed in an interview a few years ago that he was an evangelical Christian, had found the true route of the exodus and now wants to investigate the Shroud of Turin. On his website he uses photos of Czech models to 'interview' him, although it is striking that all these models 'imitate' his style of speech. Of course nobody in the fashion world knows the 'Czech supermodel, the second most beautiful woman in Europe', a Martina Tycova, who is supposedly his assistant ...

The fact that my investigation, which I conducted in the 1990s, came to a different (positive) result than I would have believed in the 1980s, only shows that I was really prepared to approach the matter openly and, if the facts demand it, to reconsider my opinion. When Werner Walter claims that commercial interests guided me, it is simply ridiculous. I never 'marketed' the case, not even finished the video, even though the cost of my investigation (due to the high travel expenses) was much higher than anything ever raised by the sale of Guido's book (and the pre-financing by FIGU was only used to cover the travel expenses for Phobol & Co. to India!) Of course I am still being attacked by Walter & Co. because of this, but I don't care about that either. For I only care about the truth!

Very warm greetings to you and all the other FIGUans.

Your Michael Hesemann

Addendum by Guido Mossbrugger

Saturday, September 16, 2006

With regard to the statement of Michael Hesemann, which he wrote to Jim Deardorff years ago, I would like to say that everything that is claimed to be contrary to what Hesemann declares is nothing but mean and particularly malicious lies and slander, no matter who puts them forward. This refers specifically to all the lies that are being attributed to Billy out of hate, as I have experienced myself since I met him in Hinwil in 1972 and he has since been wickedly terrorised to obstruct his activities and mission by having his pictures stolen and taken by a man-forged by a man from the canton of Ticino, as well as by a man from the Swiss Rhine Valley, in order to harm Billy. This kind of evil doing has been perpetuated every year to this day, even after the move to the Center Hinterschmidrüti, secretly not even shying away from evil cabals, and even today, impudent lies are still being spread about Billy in order to give him a bad name through blasphemous slander all over the world. This is done especially through newspapers, television, magazines and journalists who are stupid enough to believe outrageous lies, like among others an apparently not very intelligent H.W. Peiniger, who publishes blasphemous interviews in JUFOF magazines, which are peppered with true lie arias of Billy's ex, like the following, which is nothing but outrageous lies and slander. And I have to say that I can't understand that a woman can lie and slander so brazenly and unscrupulously, whose husband did everything for her to be well, as I can testify, as can Bernadette, Jacobus, Engelbert, Maria, Madeleine, and all the others, which we all together hold in high esteem Billy in his whole kind of friendship and humanity as well as in his readiness to help, kindness and his work ethic, which he has tirelessly worked with hard craftsmanship and book-writing throughout the years during all weekdays and often up to 18 or more hours per day. Without the addition of his own financial resources and his knowledge of a wide range of handicraft work, which he carried out himself, starting with carpentry and joinery work, the entire house electrics, bricklaying, concrete and slab work, snow clearing with the tractor, gardening, agricultural, forest and digging work, which he carried out by himself and with only one arm with a pitchfork, pickaxe and shovel etc. and together with our members, our centre would never have come into existence.

Lubrication ARTICLE (original playback - uncorrected) by Hans-Werner Peiniger - April 14, 2006 - Comments disabled for interview with Kalliope Meier - Renewed doubts about Billy Meyer. About the jufofJUFOF. Interview with Kalliope Meier - Renewed doubts about Billy Meyer, by Hans-Werner Peiniger in an interview with Billy Meier's wife Kalliope.

You all know the Swiss contact person Eduard "Billy" Meier, who claims to be in contact with extraterrestrial intelligences, whose origin lies in the area of the Pleiades (Seven Stars). To confirm this, he has submitted hundreds of UFO photos over the years, which are supposed to show Pleiadian spaceships. In the past we have raised the case several times and in JUFOF No. 79, 1'92:17ff there is a detailed review of the book "Guido Moosbrugger: Und sie fliegen doch..." (Guido Moosbrugger: And yet they do fly...) which I wrote, in which I once again presented our sceptical attitude towards Meier's fantastic claims. "Sceptical attitude" is actually an understatement. In our opinion, which is shared by all serious researchers, Meier's contacts are deliberate "inventions", the UFO photos are fakes, and the core group that lives permanently around Meier is a sectlike community.

While in the German-speaking world only a few good believers fall for Meier's assertions, Meier's stories find widespread circulation in Japan and the USA. Numerous forgeries have already been proven against Meier and his credibility is at the lowest end of the possible scale. It is therefore all the more incomprehensible when Magazine 2000 editor-in-chief Michael Hesemann considers Billy Meier to be "one of the most fascinating people of our days". But maybe he means 'one of the most cunning people of our days', who can live quite well on the money of his patrons. And when Mr. Hesemann then also writes that "some photos were found that appeared rather dubious" and tries to justify this with a contamination by Meier's opponents, by the extraterrestrials or by Meier himself, in order to protect himself and his family (preface to Meier's book "The Truth about the Pleiades, Neuwied, 1996), then a quite proper portion of blue-eyedness belongs to it. While one can perhaps not expect publishers, who publish predominantly esoteric literature and who open the stage again for Meier to the bona fide public by publishing his new book, to be able to analyze critical contexts, one should expect that of Germany's UFO experts (according to foreign countries) and connoisseurs of the subject. Here Hese-mann must finally take a clear position and not help undecided people over the threshold to sectarianism by apparently confirming statements. A new development in the 'Meier case' is looming, which Michael Hesemann, if he does not want to become Meier's pioneer himself, cannot escape.

It is hardly known that Meier's wife has meanwhile separated from her husband and is living in divorce. For the first time she broke her silence towards her Swiss colleague Luc Bürgin, who spoke with Mrs. Meier and had the interview published in the UFO-KURIER (NR. 30, 4'97:14ff). From this we can already infer that, according to Mrs. Meier, "his contact experiences were all about lies and Deceit." For example, there was an explanation for the photograph of an alien with a ray gun, or for Meier's "Pie Ship" photograph, for which he had apparently used a simple barrel cap.

Since Mrs. Meier now obviously opened up to critical UFO researchers, I (in the following called 'hwp') also took the opportunity at the beginning of May for a half-hour conversation with Mrs. Kalliope Meier ('KM'). Even if some things could not be discussed in as much detail or became clear as might have been necessary, Mrs. Meier gives us a small insight into her husband's life and work.

hwp: How did the divorce actually come about and did you have a permanent job on your husband's farm?

KM: I have not been on the farm since 1994. Last year in June I left the farm.

ten. That is quite clear, ... .. (Note Billy: This part of the sentence is deleted, because it defamatory violates the privacy of another person and maliciously damages his reputation) My permanent task was of course the whole household. I cooked for the crew, with children about 16 people, and received visitors. In addition I looked after the library and processed the mail of the about 100 to 120 passive members.

hwp: Your husband is accused of having formed and leading a more or less sect-like community. How do you see this accusation?

KM: In order to be able to say something about this, you have to work on the farm for a longer period of time, be able to speak, discuss, observe the whole thing and then come to the conclusion whether this is a sectarian community or not. But it looks that way. There are many paragraphs and laws within the group - one may not smoke, one may not do this and that, one may not go outside, one may not do that and and and - one law after another. Criticism is not tolerated and not expressed.

hwp: Is this core group living on your husband's farm actually a 'blindly following group'?

KM: In a certain sense, yes. People have to believe that, otherwise they wouldn't have chosen to live on the farm. If my husband says that's the case, then that's the case! There is no criticism. If my husband says that my wife stole this and that, then that's the way it is, there's no discussion - everyone has to believe that - there's no criticism. You don't believe it: if you don't keep to it, you are suddenly an outsider.

hwp: Does your husband deal with the group in an authoritarian way?

KM: If he agrees with something, then the group also agrees with it. You are not allowed to say 'no'. It's quite authoritarian, dictatorial and hierarchical.

hwp: Now you had made many friends within the core group over the last few years. How did they react to your husband's accusations that you had stolen certain things? Did they stand behind you or did they 'drop' them immediately?

KM: The group members were all my friends. Because of these false accusations that my husband is making against me, everyone is now against me. I have indeed been 'dropped'. It is sad because the truth is not as he describes it. People need to listen to me and hear what I have experienced. The members of the group don't know a lot of things - I was covering for my husband, so to speak. If the group members were not on the farm, for example, because they were working during the day, they didn't experience everything as I did. They don't know anything about many things. These are such things that I do not want to bring outside. It's not in my character. It's also far from my intention to finish my husband like he says, because there were also beautiful moments and times that I don't want to dirty with 'dirt'.

hwp: Your husband is accused by the serious UFO research of falsifying photos and the like.

KM: It is really tragic and mean what my husband does. I can say that these are really all fakes that my husband has made. To prove that, you only have to look and compare them with the photos and the material.

hwp: Have you ever seen your husband fake photos?

KM: You can't see how he produces the photos. I only saw something here once - as a model. That's all. But I was a bit surprised when my husband published a contact report last year, in which he showed his last photos. They only showed a cover. And the bad thing about it is that Guido (Moosbrugger) even with these photos is still giving lectures in America holds. You've got to do something about that!

hwp: Did your husband ever have the opportunity to fake the photos unnoticed?

KM: Sure, he is a free man. He went and came as he pleased. He didn't ask or think, I have a family or I have children. And the group members don't see those things. My husband was away for days, nights, away from home. We didn't know where he had gone. Days or weeks later he presented us with new photos or something. After his return there was always something there.

hwp: Given that the photos are only fakes, what do you think about the photo analyses of the American scientists?

KM: I have the feeling that there are basically a lot of cheaters in America. If I now speak of what Mr. Korff said in his book (Spaceships of the Plejades - The Billy Meier Story. Prometheus, Loughton, 1995 - review in JUFOF No. 110, 2'97:61), then what my husband always said about these scientists cannot be true.

hwp: What do you know about the metal samples that were allegedly examined?

KM: I have read several chemistry books and I think that these metals are composed of different chemicals/alloys. I don't think that they are extraterrestrial metals.

hwp: You are currently being vehemently attacked by your husband in contact reports or on the Internet (via <http://www.alien.de/figu/FIGUHP50.HTM>). What does he actually accuse you of in concrete terms?

KM: Mainly that I stole a lot of things, or that I had been there before, in Hinterschmitrüti, that I influenced the passive members somehow, etc. All these things that are not true at all.

hwp: What does your husband actually think about his group members? Are they just 'fools' who finance a nice life for him?

KM: Yeah, sure, sure. Besides, he lives for free up there on the farm. Every man would be happy if he had a life like that. Every member has to give away a certain part of his income. Everything has to be financed, the mortgages, electricity etc. He can't carry that himself.

hwp: Does your husband actually believe in his contacts with the Pleiades himself?

KM: Yes, yes: He already believes in it himself. He is convinced that this is so. And in order to prove these contacts, he forges the photos. And so that he can tell the people of the core group again and again, look here, that's the way it was. He needs people, he can't stand on his own feet alone. He does not want to get out of his psychic labyrinth. Because if he wanted to get out of it, he would have to live very poorly afterwards. The real contacts, they don't go among the people or to the masses, they remain hidden like that - for a lifetime. And those who only want to make money, they go out, they must have people, like my husband. He must have people who will lift him up to heaven

hwp: What happens now?

KM: My husband continues as before. I am currently very satisfied and I have realized what I have been wishing for years, namely to enter the nursing profession. It is very nice to see how satisfied people are when you help them a little bit. I attach great importance to the human and not to this power - honestly. So it was always a torture for me that people were deceived by my husband and that I covered for him.

hwp: Thank you for the information and I wish you all the best for your new phase of life.

Late comment

By Bernadette Brand, Switzerland

Only now (8.11.2019) have I learned of the interview Hans-Werner Peiniger conducted with Kalliope Meier in April 2006, which he, like many other people who are talking to her for the first time, fell for. This was also the case with many core group members who initially reacted very positively to Kalliope Meier - naturally also because she was the wife of Billy, who for his part is extremely honest, integer and open - but then, after getting to know her better, they were forced to discover to their deep regret how scheming, mendacious and power-hungry the ex-wife of 'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier really is. There is not a single word in her entire interview with Mr Peiniger

Unfortunately, Mr. Peiniger, in his bias against Billy Meier, is not able to see through the scheming maneuvers and the deep lying of his interview partner, who in her malice and proverbial jealousy is only too happy to give him ammunition against Billy. In addition to all her other negative traits, she has a deep desire for revenge and prestige, which leads her to twist the facts in her favour and to always put herself in the best light and pass the buck to others.

As an example of this, I take her statement: "I also looked after the library and the post office of the approximately 100 to 120 passive members," she says: "It need only be mentioned that at the time of which she speaks, Calliope had only an extremely poor command of the German language - there was certainly no question of a written knowledge of the language that would have enabled her to process the extensive correspondence. So it was absolutely impossible for her to put any text down on paper without mistakes and in an understandable way, because for all her texts she needed a 'ghostwriter' who was willing to sit down with her and write down her spoken words in an understandable way. How could she have handled the mail with these conditions?"

Another lie is that you are not allowed to smoke in the center, you are not allowed to go outside, etc. I myself met Billy during 1976 and moved to the center in January 1978, where I still live today (2019). So I can say that I know Calliope and the conditions in and around Billy very well. The fact that smoking should be forbidden can only be laughed at by all those members who today still like to reach for their cigarettes, and the fact that you are not allowed to 'go out' is just as ridiculous, because all core group members, whether they live in the centre or outside, lead their own private lives and personal friendships, about which they are not accountable to anyone, because the FIGU is organised as an association and not as a sect that blindly follows its 'guru'. Billy is also nothing more than a member of the association with the same voice as everyone else, and it is not that he should not be contradicted, because this happens quite often.

Calliope's answer to the question of whether Billy had had the opportunity to falsify the photos is absurd. Hardly any other man has been so meticulously monitored and distrustfully eyed by his wife as Billy von Calliope. In her jealousy, she was always tempted to construct an affair out of almost every conversation he had with another woman - especially when it took a little longer at times - and therefore sometimes made scenes for weeks at a time. From this premise alone, it would have been impossible for him to leave the Center for long periods of time in order to fake pictures or film footage, for which he would have needed an outside studio or laboratory at the time, which would certainly not have gone unnoticed. Quite apart from the fact that, on the one hand, he would not have been able to afford the necessary equipment for such forgeries financially, and on the other hand, the technical possibilities for such forgeries were not even available at that time, which Mr. Peiniger for his part should have known if he had really dealt with the matter in a truly unbiased and objective manner and acquired the necessary expertise. In contrast, MUFON has done so and has been judging Billy's pictures as genuine for several years.

The fact that Calliope claims to have read and understood various chemistry books and - if she has actually done so - attributes to herself the necessary specialist knowledge required for the assessment of the metal samples, only shows to what extent she overestimates herself and how great her addiction to money is, with which she even defies the judgement of such a luminary as Dr. Marcel Vogel.

All other statements made by Calliope are not to be taken seriously either and represent the exact opposite of what is reality and what is fact. However, all those who know Calliope personally are clearly aware of her extremely ambivalent relationship to given facts, because she herself has often enough made it clear in which fantasy world she lives. There are no 'fools', as Mr. Peiniger and Calliope would like to portray, in the FIGU centre and association, but independent, self-reliant and capable people who are able to live their lives in any situation and who do not believe that they should be considered something better than themselves, as is the case with Calliope, who even before her divorce from Billy tried to push herself to the fore at the expense of the truth. But that she cowardly conceals the fact that she herself encountered an alien, namely Ptaah, and that she was able to see the Pleiarian ships several times even in daylight, apart from the fact that she also had other experiences that should have made her think if she were honest, that fits her very well and her lying, scheming and malicious-defamatory behaviour.

7. what is true about all the very many claims made by people, etc. ...

Answer: First of all, I would like to say a few things about your question and your remarks with regard to Michael Hese-mann, because I think it is necessary for me to explain a few things about him. First of all

Michael Hesemann is not the man you think he is. It is true that he has obviously turned away from the matter of UFOs etc. and has, as it seems and is to be assumed - whereby it remains an assumption until clarity arises -, turned to the faith in Catholicism, because on the one hand he has not let me hear anything from him for years, and on the other hand it results, when information about him is broadcast on television, that he has found a field of activity in the Christian faith and the Vatican. That, however, is only a supposition and, moreover, it is his very personal affair, in which no human being has to interfere.

What to say about your questions and attacks concerning Michael Hesemann, I think that attacks of any kind against him correspond to your personal opinion, which I cannot share with you. For my part, I have known Michael as a person of integrity, decency, righteousness and truth and have worked with him for a long time, so I cannot accuse him of any unfairness.

Michael Hesemann is a person who has not only dealt with UFOs, but is also very educated and is also a historian, author, documentary filmmaker and specialist journalist for contemporary and church history topics. Although Michael first became known in the late 1980s and early 1990s through his research and publications on UFOs and extraterrestrials, he turned to other fields of study in 1997 and has since been writing and publishing books on Christian themes.

But what about it, when Michael - whom I appreciate very much as a human being and also regarding his work and all the hostilities he took on for me - in his UFO books etc. names many alleged contact persons as <real> contact persons with aliens, then that is effectively his own business. Maybe the whole thing is because he had no possibility to get to know all the people concerned and to clarify with them in detail what was truth and what was lie or pure imagination. Perhaps he may also be, as you say, a little naïve, whereby I mean that he may have been a little <naïve> in his assessment of the so-called contactors according to your naïve understanding, but whoever has somehow not done this himself in his life may throw the first stone at Michael Hesemann. I think, however, that no honest person on earth can throw a stone, because every single person inevitably makes mistakes, misunderstands something or acts wrongly, whereby exactly such mistakes in any case are undoubtedly made out of a certain breath of naivety, which cannot be recognized as naivety. For naivety is not simply to be evaluated according to what the vernacular tends to describe as naivety, childlike, primal, simple, harmless or foolish, etc, because the word <naivety> comes from the Latin term <nativus>' which was defined completely wrongly out of know-it-all and falsification of the term and lack of understanding and means something completely different than just naivety, childish, original, simple, harmless or foolish etc.

The term <naiv>, originating from the Latin <nativus>, from which first the barbaric Latin <naivus>, then the French <naif> emerged in the Middle Ages by abbreviation, which was finally incorporated into German as was the noun <naifeté> formed by it.

<Nativity means that a certain behaviour of a human being is born; that it is innate, natural and therefore native. Consequently, a <naivingness> of a human being stands for the fact that he e.g. commits mistakes, is careless or religious etc., but which is in any case connected with a naïve innate evolutionary process and is absolutely NATIVE, according to which a naivingness normally consists in the fact that the human being on the one hand appears as natural as he is and on the other hand learns from his naivety. So when a mistake is made, the consequence is that the cause of the mistake is sought, it is corrected and from then on no longer committed. In the same way, the same principle applies to a belief that basically also corresponds to an error, misconception and misconduct and possibly wrongdoing, which must be thought about and the effective truth found. And this too is a thing that is innate in man, namely that he believes something or falls into a belief if he is inattentive and does not think everything thoroughly and necessarily according to reality and therefore does not find the truth.

That which is generally called < naivety> thus corresponds to something completely different from what is actually meant, because this refers to the fact that a person behaves <unbiased>, <uncritical>, and that is what the terms <unbiased> and <neutral behaviour stand for. So it turns out that when Michael Hesemann has confronted any kind of stories, stories, facts, lies or slander without prejudice or neutral behaviour, then he has simply reproduced what he has heard, what has been said or what he has seen, experienced and learned, and this has nothing to do with naivety in any way.

Unfortunately, it has been the case since time immemorial that some <wise> and <clever> contemporaries assess themselves incredibly cleverly and derive new terms, designations and words from any particular terms they do not understand correctly and introduce them into languages which then become completely are wrong and mean something completely different from what must be understood by it in principle. In this way the whole thing is then handed down and used for centuries without anyone being disturbed by it or finding out that the term is wrong. But if one day, however, someone who understands certain words, terms and designations correctly and is therefore able to interpret and explain them correctly, appears to be able to explain what they actually mean effectively, then all the know-it-alls in linguistics will make the enlightening ridiculous. And this has always been the case because the <students and scholars with their doctoral and professorial degrees want or have to know everything better as experts. As a result, it is almost impossible to correct and replace really completely wrong terms by effectively relevant correct words, designations and concepts.

But now what concerns all the alleged contact persons with just as alleged extraterrestrials as well as again alleged materials like earth, precious metals, crystals, potatoes and flights into world space or to other worlds, channeling with extraterrestrials and other other nonsense, so I know through plejaric investigations and through my own experiences with such persons who tell such nonsense that such lying and cheating earthlings of both sexes walk around the earth almost in masses, spread fantasy stories and deceive their believers.

Who and how many of all those earthlings are conscious liars and cheats or jokers, phantoms or imaginary contactors, delusional people or those who want to arouse public interest, make themselves important, hope for a partnership, try to get a title or Nobel Prize or whatever, I don't know and I don't want to judge, because that doesn't interest me at all. For me, only reality and truth are of deep meaning and importance.

But what I can now explain with certainty is that every female or male earthling is a liar and cheat if he or she claims to be in contact and connection with any person of the Plejars in personal or telepathic form, through channeling or otherwise.

10. there was a man in America called James Forrester etc. ...

Answer: And now for the tenth question: <There was a man in America named James Forrester who knew something about UFOs, but then he killed himself, but I don't know why, so I want to know why?>

It has to be said that this man did not commit suicide - and I know this very well, because at that time the whole incident was observed by Sfath, for which he explained the whole circumstances to me and obliged me to silence in such a way that I never publicly mention the effective and true background and machinations of the far-reaching incidents, but only to that man who would then be the real one, who would take up my contacts with the Plejars and make them known worldwide, but then would persistently keep silent about all the special things I would entrust to him.

Now it is a fact that on the one hand the name of the man was not James Forrester but James Vincent Forrestal, the first Secretary of Defense of the USA, and he had such extensive knowledge in matters of UFOs and US defense plans as well as in matters of secret service actions etc. etc. that a certain grouping and their forces etc. feared a great danger with regard to the uncovering of their underhanded machinations. This was because Forrestal did not agree with these plans and was therefore a danger to the group, so it was decided that he should be liquefied, which was done by murdering him on the morning of 22 May 1949, at 1:47 a.m., by first strangling him unconscious in Bethesda Naval Hospital, and then throwing him out of a window on the 16th floor and smashing him to the ground.

12. why do so many stupid people still believe in the lie stories etc. ...

Answer: The unknown, the fantastic, the inexplicable, the novel and the futuristic has been a magnet for people since time immemorial, and it has remained so until today. This phenomenon will also remain so for a long time to come, because as long as people are seduced by indoctrination to a belief and believing bondage, as long as they do not think for themselves, do not decide for themselves, do not make their own truthful decisions without external influence, everything will remain as it has always been.

If people continue as ever not to make an effort to create their own opinions and not to develop their own reason and intellect, not to acquire their own personal, righteous behaviour, they will rot in their own stupidity. And this will remain as it has always been, both by religious and by any other faith. And this is so because every faith leads to blind bondage, far from any reality and truth, because every faith of any kind is built on lies and deceit, with religious faith as an almost salvation-less delusion at the head of the front of all evil.

But what now has to be said about Adamski himself can be explained briefly and concisely: Adamski was an unparalleled swindler, whom many followers who were not bound to reason and intellect thoughtlessly believed, and still do so today, because in their faith in him they are unable to get to the bottom of reality and truth.

The fact is: I know Adamski personally from before, when he was in the Volkshaus Zurich in May 1959. At that time, I had not exactly got the best impression of him, although I had to talk to him with an interpreter, because I was not yet able to speak English at that time. I noticed, however, that the man was dominated by a tremendous stubbornness and by a great egoism that seemed unusual to me, but which was to be hidden by an almost perfectly played friendliness and charity. I found that the man had an extraordinary gift for persuasion and suggestion and that he always knew how to take the conversation to himself. It was clear that he had fallen for an ideal and was exploiting it for his own benefit with a fake help for the oppressed. So it also seemed to me that the fight against injustice was only an act by him and all this only to put himself in the centre. It seemed to me that in the first and last place only his own needs were predominant for him, from the big toe up to the last tip of his hair. I had the impression at that time that he was in every respect only ever concerned about his own self and his own well-being, which he guided to the highest levels by an enormous imagination and suggestive power. He also seemed to me to be dominated by the will to be in the first place in every respect and to want to take the lead in every respect.

Further I can say today, which unfortunately I was not allowed to say publicly before for certain reasons, that Asket from the DAL universe, on behalf of the Pleiar Sfath, was my next contact person for a full 11 years from 1953, then afterwards also until 1975. Asket arranged that the two of us beamed ourselves into the room reserved for Adamski and suddenly stood in front of him. He collapsed in shock and could barely sit down on a chair. Asket talked to him and also translated everything I asked him and said that he was telling lies because he knew very well that his fantasy stories were nothing but fantasies. Slowly he came to his senses and admitted his lying and deceitfulness, formulating his motive in such a way that he felt a great need to be known, as actors do. He thought that he could use the story of Kenneth Arnold as a basis for it and expand it in the way he did. Our meeting with him, however, didn't bring anything in the way that he would have stopped with his lies and cheating, because he continued in the same style, because he was probably too cowardly to admit publicly his rotten machinations.

11. What is true about the Roswell UFO case? etc. ...

Answer: The crash of a UFO was and is a reality and had no relation to a weather balloon and Project Mogul. All military, scientific, and intelligence representations and claims that it was a weather balloon research company and that the crashed object was a balloon are nothing more than a pack of lies and deception to cover up something that must not be made public for a very long time. And I am not allowed to talk about that either, so I must maintain silence.

Fourteen. Why, Billy Meier, are you keeping your distance from the public? ...

Answer: This question has already been answered by Michael Hesemann in the last century / millennium under point 2 of his letter to Prof. Jim Deardorff in the USA, whereby he has already answered your question and probably better than I could do it, which is why his answer is listed again below:

< Anyone who has ever met Billy Meier in person can confirm that his personality is neither that of a cult leader, nor that his position in the FIGU is that of an authoritarian leader.

KKK never met Billy, so he can't say anything about him. The structure of FIGU is purely democratic; every single item on the agenda is voted on. A sect has a totalitarian ideology: FAITH, and you will find salvation. Billy teaches: Do not believe, find the truth yourself. In his philosophy, man can evolve only through self-knowledge. He doesn't appear in public; he doesn't want to become a public person because he doesn't want people following him or seeing him as something special. Instead, he wants people to learn...

and find the truth themselves, because that is the only way they can grow and evolve.>

15. What's the Blue Book really about? ...

Answer: Concerning the Blue Book mentioned above, it is the US legal citation manual, but there are other Blue Books available, such as those listed in Wikipedia:

- 1 Blue Books, books presented to the British Parliament on diplomatic negotiations, see Blue Book (England)
- 2 the specification of the CD-Extra (hybrid CD with audio and data session), see Rainbow Books #Blue Book
- 3 Blue Book (magazine), US magazine (1905-1975)
- 4.a paperback series founded in 1919 in the USA, see Little Blue Books
- 5 Project Blue Book, a US government project to study UFOs

Concerning the requested Blue Book, however, the following is to be said that it is a Project Blue Book, namely a US government project for the investigation of UFOs, to which I have found the following in Wikipedia, which in the end amounts to the fact that according to the alleged Blue Book clarifications in the matter of UFOs, such are not supposed to exist Basically these < clarifications> were nothing else but a well thought-out deception of certain US military, political and secret service circles - and much more - for the purpose of misleading the US people. This, while in the Soviet Union, too, the UFO phenomenon was largely hushed up by the KGB etc., although the UFOs also caused concern in USSR government and KGB circles. It is also a fact that during the Cold War between the USA and the USSR, these objects repeatedly evoked the danger of another world war, partly even technically controlled by certain UFOs themselves, but then neutralized by them. But what is now being explained at Wikipedia in relation to the Project Blue Book, which was ultimately designed to deceive and mislead the American people, to mislead them about the effective truth of the UFO phenomenon, and to leave them completely unaware through lies and deception, is this:

The Project Blue Book was one of several systematic studies conducted by U.S. Air Force Intelligence to collect and evaluate sightings of UFOs by Air Force pilots, Air Force radar stations, other air force personnel, and field investigations. The study began in 1952 and was the third of its kind after Sign (1947) and Grudge (1949). The end of the project was ordered in December 1969 and all activities were suspended until the end of January 1970.

History

Project Sign, Project Grudge

In 1947, the Project Sign was established and reported for most of 1948, and some of the staff, including Project Director Robert Sneider, preferred the extra-Irish hypothesis as the best explanation for some UFO reports. High-ranking superiors then dissolved the project and the final report stated that while some UFOs corresponded to real planes, there was not enough data to determine their origin.

In February 1949, Project Grudge followed and everything was evaluated under the premise that UFOs did not exist. Mockery spread throughout the Pentagon, and many treated the subject as a ridiculous joke. Staff did little or no investigation, but at the same time explained the opposite. Some military personnel spread so much malice and ridicule that generals had to demand respect for the reports and their observers. The public was deliberately disinfomed with false reports. Pilots were portrayed as incompetent and hallucinatory and generals lied to each other. The final report of August 1949 named as explanations for UFOs the misinterpretation of conventional objects, mass hysteria, lies of persons with a need for recognition and psychopathological persons.

Project Blue Book

In 1951 the new Project Blue Book was founded under the direction of Edward J. Ruppelt. He attempted-

The aim is to make the investigations more systematic and scientific. In particular, it promoted a standardisation of the questionnaires used by staff who had made sightings.

In 1954, the Project Blue Book presented the report Project Blue Book - Special Report No. 14, which contained sighting reports and tables. In total, about 3200 sightings were documented in the Project Blue Book. The sightings were categorized as known, unknown and insufficient information, and the quality of the reports was rated on a scale of one to four.

Around 69% of the cases were categorised as known, 9% lacked further details and 22% were assessed as unknown. 33% of all excellent cases were unknown compared to only 17% of the worst cases. Cases were rated as excellent if they had been observed in a particularly reliable manner, i.e. if they had been observed by several trustworthy and experienced persons. Furthermore, the known and the unknown sightings differed significantly in the observed characteristics. Despite these striking circumstances, the Air Force claimed that the report would confirm that none of the sightings could be linked to alien vehicles. Edward J. Ruppelt criticized this evaluation of the report in his 1956 book 'Report On Unidentified Flying Objects'. He was of the opinion that the report had been misused for political purposes without mentioning its contents.

The astronomical advisor of Project Blue Book was J. Allen Hynek, director of the McMillin Observatory of Ohio State University. He also described the project from his point of view (New York 1972, 'The UFO Experience - A Scientific Inquiry', Munich 1978 'UFO Report - A Research Report'). In 1973 he founded CUFOS (Center for UFO Studies).

Condon Committee and completion of Project Blue Book

The Condon Committee was a commission of inquiry announced by the USAF as independent and objective, under the leadership of Edward Condon of the University of Colorado. It was to evaluate all collected records of UFO incidents until then. The Project Blue Book was completed in 1969. After serious internal disagreements, the Condon Committee came to the conclusion, published in January 1969, that the UFO sightings were irrelevant to science and that further investigations were superfluous. The USAF oriented itself to this in its justification of the termination of Project Blue Book.

The final report contains statistics on 12,618 reported incidents from 1947 to 1969, most of which could be attributed to natural phenomena or conventional missiles. According to Condon, some reports were deliberate forgeries. 701 incidents (about 6%) were classified as 'unidentified'.

Criticism of Project Blue Book

David R. Saunders allegedly received a memo from the Commission's project manager, Robert Low, which was written shortly before the Commission's activities began and which is said to have clearly set out what the Commission would have had to show and how the public was to be deceived. After the public learned of this fact, Saunders was fired [no source]; another member of staff wrote a detailed memo on blatant abuses in Condon and resigned her cooperation. Other UFO experts who had been invited to cooperate - for example, Donald E. Keyhoe (NICAP) - also withdrew.

After the discontinuation of 'Blue Book' in 1969, J. Allen Hynek published a book in 1972 entitled 'The UFO Experience', in which he gives facts and figures from his point of view and, above all, reports on his experiences in Project Sign/Grudge/Blue Book. According to him, the USAF was constantly trying to deceive the public about the reality and extent of the UFO problem, and he himself was not uninvolved in this. However, Hynek focused primarily on the scientific side of the problem and strongly criticized the inadequacy of the equipment and the unscientific nature of Project Blue Book. In the meantime, however, more recent studies have been published on the American fascination with UFOs and the state's interest in them.

Documentation

The files of the Project Blue Book are stored in the National Archives under the Freedom of Information Act and are available to the public. The microfilm archive can also be accessed and searched in full on the Internet. However, names of eyewitnesses have been deleted from the documents. The document also contains references to two investigations by the University of Colorado and a public statement (UFO Fact Sheet) which clarifies that in none of the cases investigated is there any evidence of extrajudicial or extra-curricular activities.

16. what about those people who were abducted by aliens etc.

Answer: Regarding the abduction of earthlings by extraterrestrials, I have no exact knowledge, nor do I know people who have had such experiences and made corresponding experiences. But in addition the Plejars explain that such events might have been caused by the aliens who were operating around the earth, but they would not care about that at all.

Basically, such kidnapping machinations, when they actually take place, are attributed to other intelligences, whereby the Plejars have nothing to do with such kidnappings. The Plejars themselves do not want to have anything to do with the strangers on earth, as they call these other intelligences, so they protect themselves against any sighting and locating of the strangers, because they do not want to enter into any contact relations with them under any circumstances, not even with earthlings.

Regarding the Men in Black and Underwater UFO Stations I am not allowed to give any information about them, UFO sightings have been recorded around the world in countless numbers since ancient times, and such observations are largely effectively attributed to flying objects, which in turn can be traced back to the various groups of strangers that inhabit the Earth.

Elsewhere many observations lead back to some earthly-natural phenomena, which can be extremely diverse and which are also called UFO sightings.

Furthermore, sightings can also be purely earthly-fabricated futuristic flying objects, which, due to their modern or unusually alien forms, are referred to as UFOs, simply as Unknown Flying Objects.

As far as foo-fighters and interference of UFOs by strangers are concerned, which very often appear on earth, intervene in acts of war or can trigger a danger of war or a giant kata verse, I don't know anything about that. This is also not the case with regard to UFO events during the last world war of 1939-1945 as well as in the Korean War and Vietnam War etc. Everything corresponds to strange occurrences, as well as when people walking, driving in cars or trains or flying in airplanes are chased, frightened or kidnapped by UFOs etc. What sense is hidden behind all such machinations, I don't know, but the whole thing proves that there is neither peace nor humanity behind it.

Ptaah All this, Eduard my friend, is well written and in my opinion right and justified to publish it. The fact that you are using the clarifications of Guido Moosbrugger for this purpose, although you vehemently refused to do so back in 2006, it is probably right to do it now, also together with the statements of Michael Hesemann.

Billy Eben, I thought the whole thing through and thought that I would publish his statement after all, after I received the letter from Mr. ... ..

Ptaah I would like to take the original of this letter with me and archive it with us. You could make a copy for yourself.

Billy You can do that, you can have him, but I don't need a copy, because I copied everything.

Ptaah I think it's good that you're going back to all the suffering of the earlier years in this way, but it won't be entirely appreciated if it's not thought through thoroughly. You yourself abstain from any answer and therefore also from any attack and justification, which is very good. - And I abstain from mentioning the name of the person I am now talking about. - Besides, you do not need it anyway, because all the accusations made against you are in no way true, but are contrary to malicious and irresponsible insults, which, however, are pathological. What I consider to be particularly serious, however, is the fact that the hate behaviour against you was created very early on, for which I have not been able to find any justification to this day, although I have dealt with this matter time and again. The fact is, however, that the unjust and defamatory behaviour against you is entirely based on a pathological malignancy, for the origin of which, however, no real justification can be found.

What I am explaining now corresponds to my medical and psychological as well as psychiatric education, and this with regard to my observations since 1975 until today, because I am still dealing with it. It is also in line with what I have discovered and diagnosed in the person concerned over the same period. The diagnosis clearly shows that this person is affected by abnormal pathological processes and states of consciousness, the causes of which, as I have already explained, I have not yet been able to determine, but which are the subject of my ongoing research. The phenomenon itself as well as the symptoms of the pathological behaviour point to a specific feature that shows a malformation of the nature of the being, which corresponds to a disposition of the entire character traits and thus to a pathologically damaged structure of personality and individuality. As a result, the very person to whom this abnormality is attached and who is psychologically assessed by me is not only emotionally immature, but this immaturity is also related to his personality. This results in a behaviour of selfish delusion that is conspicuous from a psychiatric point of view, as well as an insufficient insight and perception of a real experience of reality. This results in a confusing thought-uncertainty, which in turn leads to a lack of experience and a deception of the perception of real reality.

The experience and the experiences resulting from it are strongly influenced by self-deception, as well as by acoustic and visual perception deceptions, whereby she is dominated by her uncontrollably changing emotional impulses, which have always prevented her normal development throughout her life. Therefore, she has had unrealistic behaviour throughout her life, which will continue to exist, so that she will remain so and will continue to be dominated by her inner and outer causes and conditions. This phenomenon develops strong confusing influences on the psyche and brings with it that the discrimination ability of the person concerned is also disturbed temporarily or completely in such a way that reality and unreality can no longer be distinguished from each other. This then manifests itself through delusions which cause such disturbances in the perception of reality that the delusional structure manifests itself in the consciousness of the person as truth and reality. From this a pathological self-deception and a love of self-constraint as well as false self-conviction are formed, which lead to an exaggerated self-esteem and self-importance, but ultimately to an abnormal pathological delusion of a true reality and truth of the all-dominant delusions.

Billy If I understand your remarks correctly, then you mean that a person who is afflicted with pathological delusions or delusions takes them as reality and truth and believes that it is really so. If I understand everything correctly, it does not matter whether the delusion corresponds to a phantasmagoria or a meeting, a perception illusion, which manifests itself as an illusion, imagination or delusion or a fake, dream image, dream dream, as a head birth, vision, deception or as a fantasy, effectual delusion, other unreality and unreality or proves to be effective truth.

Ptaah That is the purpose of my explanation. But now, Edward, I must end our conversation for today, because ...

Billy This is true, but unfortunately it is not always possible to calculate the time in advance when a topic is raised that needs to be discussed in detail. But now I'd like to ask you what you think of my idea, which is that I want to ask someone if anyone from our old guard has a few words to say about the smear article of the JUFOF interview, which I could add to this interview?

Ptaah Of course you can do that, because it might be good if one more member, who was there from the beginning, would contribute a short correction to what Guido also wrote about 13 years ago.

Billy For this I thought that maybe Bernadette would be the right person, because apart from Jacobus, who was there from the beginning and as a scribbler declares himself to be zero, only Bernadette is present today, because all the others have died, except Olgi, although she is already over 93 years old, can hardly walk anymore and also can't deal well with writing. They ... .. are still alive, but it would be a nasty imposition with regard to these two drifters.

Ptaah I think so too, which is why Bernadette remains the only choice, while also being the right person for a proper brief presentation of the facts i

Spiritual Teaching Peace Symbol

Spreading the right symbol of peace

FIGU, Semjase Silver Star Center, 8495 Schmidrüti, Switzerland/Switzerland Tel. + 41 (0)52 385 13 10

The false symbol of peace - the so-called <rune of death>, which is spread worldwide today and which originates from the Celtic Futhark runes resp. is the actual epitome of negative influences and creates destructive vibrations regarding discord, feuds and hatred, revenge, vice, addictions and bondage, because the <death rune> means for many people reminiscences of the NACI times) of death and ruin, but also ambitions regarding wars, terror, destruction of many human achievements and all necessary foundations of life of any kind and worldwide discord.

It is indeed most urgent that the <rune of death> as a false peace symbol, which creates discord and unrest, disappears completely from the earthly world, and thus the ancient and true peace symbol is spread all over the earth and made world-famous, whose central elements reflect peace, freedom, harmony, strengthening of the life force, protection, growth and wisdom, have a constructive effect and help very calming and peaceful-positive vibrations to break through, which can effectively convey peace, freedom and harmony! We therefore turn to all reasonable-and honest people striving for peace, freedom, harmony, justice, knowledge and evolution, to do and give their best to spread the right symbol of peace worldwide and to raise awareness of the dangerous and destructive use of <death rune>, which in memory of the NACI crimes collectively promotes the degeneration of man's character, degeneration and disaster, as it is unfortunately also after the end of the last world war 1939-1945 extremely carried on until today.

Spreading of the Correct Peace Symbol

The wrong peace symbol – the globally widespread “death rune” which has been fabricated from the Celtic Futhark runes or invert-ed Algiz rune – is the actual embodiment/quintessence of negative influences and evokes destructive swinging-waves regarding unpeace and hatred, revenge, vice, addictions and bondage, because for many human beings the “death rune” means reminiscence (memories) of the Nazi era, of death and ruin as well as ambitions concerning war, terror, destruction of human achievements, livelihoods as well as global evil unpeace.

Therefore it is of the utmost necessity that the wrong peace symbol, the “death rune”, disappears from the world and that the ur-ancient and correct peace symbol is spread and made known all-over the world, because its central elements reflect peace, free-dom, harmony, strengthening of the life power, protection, growth and wisdom, have a constructive and strongly soothing effect, and help peaceful-positive swinging-waves to break through.

Therefore we appeal to all FIGU members, all FIGU-Interessengruppen, Studien- und Landesgruppen as well to all reasonable hu-man beings, who are honestly striving for peace, freedom, harmony, fairness, knowledge and evolution, to do, and give, their best to spread the correct peace symbol worldwide and to bring forth clarification about the dangerous and destructive use of the “death rune”, which in memory of the Nazi crimes collectively furthers deterioration and neglect of character-"ausartung" and terribleness in the reflecting and striving of the human being, as this is still being extremely carried on after the end of the last world war 1939– 1945 until the current time.
